

Pomsky Buying Checklist

---

- Determine your desired pomsky
  - Size, markings and temperament
- Find a local breeder – click here to find a breeder near you
- Make initial email contact with the breeder and ask the following:
  - Are pomsies available
  - Is there a wait list
  - Is there a deposit
  - What is the buying process
  - What are the fees
  - Is there a sales contract
  - What guarantees are offered
  - Provide references – vet and previous buyer
  - Provide photos of the litter, dam and sire
- Contact the breeder by phone and ask the following: (this reduces scams)
  - What are the breeder's qualifications and experience
  - What shots and health tests do they perform and are puppies microchipped
  - What food are the puppies fed
  - What training and socialization is performed
  - What is the premises like, how are the puppies raised
- Contact the breeder's vet – ask what health tests are performed
- Contact previous buyers – ask about their experience
- Visit the breeder onsite (if possible)
- Choose a pomsky and pay the deposit
- Request weekly photos and videos of your pomsky

Pomsky Buying Checklist

---

- Request training and pomsky care advice
  - What food to buy
  - What toys to buy
  - How to house train
- Sign the sales contract
- Request IPA or PCA registration paperwork with the sale
- Request copy of health tests, shots and microchip confirmation